OUR APPROACH

Luca Fiorentino is the founder of Through The Noise. A former commercial pilot, he previously led Australia's largest pilot training school and taught in Australia's top-ranked MBA program. Through The Noise translates those same high-stakes frameworks (fast decisions under pressure, planning in uncertainty) into ball-games and exercises that are easily absorbed by a high school audience.

TESTIMONIALS

"The workshop genuinely unearthed an inner confidence and sense of agency, empowering students to believe in themselves and take ownership of their future pathways" - Head Teacher (Careers)

"Luca's engaging, authentic and relatable delivery created a safe space for students to challenge their thinking, participate openly and connect the concepts to their own lives." - Head Teacher (Careers)

"My life just seems better after that presentation"
- Year 10 student

"The workshop showed me how I can move forward from today and attack challenges"
- Year 11 student

"I feel I can deal with more difficult situations - being able to take on different mindsets to work through them easier." - Year 12 student
